HEADMASTER

F. GARDINER F. BRIDGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1979:

It would be presumptuous of me to describe your class as each member might see it, for nobody knows the class better than the students in it. You have left your impact, however, and more than one of us have appreciated your ability to function well together as a group. You have exhibited also a conscientiousness concerning the activities in which you have been involved, and you have been serious about getting things done. It's refreshing to see you class members hold genuine respect for each other. Not always does a class demonstrate the kind of consideration you have shown for others in the School community. Frankly, I like the zest you portray and the depth of your loyalty to the School.

What will happen after you have graduated? Once the class disperses in many different directions to achieve a wide variety of goals, it is difficult to predict what the class may be like ten or fifteen years later. It is my hope, however, that some of the good qualities you possess now will carry you into a life of abundance in the best sense, that which gives attention in particular to the humane aspects of mankind and which shows concern for things of substance. This School will never lose sight of the fact that you were a member of it. We hope also that you will not forget what your experiences here have meant to you. We will need your continuing concern and interest. Most of all, we hope to be deserving of your continuing loyalty and support so that HEAD-ROYCE can remain as a strong force in meeting the educational needs of young people.

I hope that the Yearbook will reflect for you moments of your experience here that will cause you to pause and to think about friends, about pleasures, and about what is important in a person's life. HEAD-ROYCE will be here when you need us. We expect you to remember that this particular school is not just buildings, teachers, and students, but is more a way of life which can be to you at any time an ongoing source of strength.

You are what you choose to be,
It is whatever it is you see,
That life will become;
Whatever it is you might think you have -
You have nothing to lose.

Let the disappointments pass,
Let laughter fill your glass.

ROSEMARY KARPLUS

We are most grateful for the unselfish counsel and knowledge shared, unceasing enthusiasm, availability
and most of all for their genuine concern for all of us.

Yesterday a child came out to wonder
Caught a dragonfly inside a jar.
Fearful when the sky was full of thunder,
And tearful at the falling of a star.

How sweet to be a Cloud
Floating in the Blue!
Every little cloud
Always sings aloud.

Glad to have a friend like you,
Fair and fun and skippin' free.
Glad to have a friend like you,
And glad to just be me.

So On And On I Go
Seconds Tick The Time Out

There's So Much Left To Know
And I'm On The Road To Find Out

Choose your reveries, keep the good leave the bad, take a few of these, the sweeter memories

Make your days
be as bright
Take a few of these,
sweeter memories

- In my life I've seen the sad and lonely, Gone places where life means misery, And met people who stand against the odds of seeing their next sunrise with smiles. So when I'm down or lonely or afraid I think of those places and people and know that I've got no right to feel sorry for myself, For no matter how bad off I think I am there's always someone worse off-

The fame that for a moment gleams,
Then flies forener, -dreams, Ah

O tears with which our eyes are wet Heart- throbs, heart-aches the

The OLD FRONT GATE

W'en daih's chillin' in de house,
Dey keep on a-gettin' tall;
But de folks don' seem to see
Dat dey's growin' up at all,
'Twell dey fin' out some fine day
Dat de gals has 'menced to grow

W'en dey notice as dey pass
Dat de front gate's saggin' low

W'en de thinges creak an' cry
An' de bahs go slantin' down
You Kin reckon dat hit's time
Fu' to cas' yo' eye erroun
'cause daih ain't no 'sputin' dis,
Hit's de trues' sign to show
Dat daih 's coutin' goin' on W'en de ol' front gate sags low.

Oh, you grumble an' complain
An' you prop dat gate up right;
But you notice right nex' day
Dat hit's in de same ol' p'ight
So you fin' dat hit's a rule,
An' daih ain' no use to blow,
W'en de gals in growin' up,
Dat de front gate will sag low.

Den you t'ink o' yo' young days,
W'en you cou'ted Sally Jane,
An' you so't o' feel ashamed
Fu' to grumble an' complain
'Cause yo' ricerlection says,
An' you know hits wo'ds is so,
Dat huh pappy had a time
Wid his front gate saggin' low.

So you jes' looks on an' smiles
At 'em leanin' on de gate,
Tryin' to t'ink whut he kin say
Fu' yo' 'sperunce goes to show
'Twell de gals is ma'ied off,
Et gwine keep on saggin' low.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All thing were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made. In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness overcame it not. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth.

Halloween

On Tuesday October 31, the Junior class hosted the Halloween parade. The Lower School as well as the Juniors came to school in their costumes. Each class was awarded a prize by the Junior class.

ANGEL ISLAND

Angel Island was a trip. Everyone took the ferry out to the island, where they all had a great time, students and faculty alike.

INTERNATIONAL FAIR

... was a success as usual. Dinner was accompanied by joyful singing, followed by touring the booths and finally a fabulous dance.

Tartuffe

On November 16 the Drama club delivered an outstanding performance of Moliere's classic Tartuffe. The play was a great success under the direction of Barry Barankin.

Pizza Feast

On December 10 the varsity basketball team and some fans went to Coach Tavis' house for pizza. Everybody made their own pizza and Nathan Comfort won the prize for the best one.

Christmas Program

Everyone had the pleasure of hearing our harmonious chorus

The Christmas Pagent, was a giant success. Everyone showed up, including parents, teachers, alumni, and friends. The choreography was beautifully done by Louise Stevens who also conducted the chorus. The audience even got a chance to test their vocal chords when they all got up to sing "Deck the Halls" and other christmas favorites. They weren't bad even if I do say so myself.

Santa even showed up...

Singing is the source of all happiness

...as well as his reindeer

Hawaii

During the week of December 16-23 the boys varsity basketball team went to the Hawaiian island of Oahu. The trip proved to be very successful in that they had a variety of experiences.

The team spent most of their time on the beach but they also visited Pearl Harbour, the legislative buildings, the Bishop Museum and the attorney general.

The trip was also very successful for they won three straight games.

This year's basketball season was tremendously successful for both the varsity and the J.V. teams. The varsity, with an overall record of 13-6, came in third in the league. The J.V. with a record of 10-4 came in an impressive number one in their division and second in the league. But most importantly we all had a great time by just being a part of a team of such terrific people.

Archery

The Varsity Archery Team had a fun and successful year. The season was highlighted by a overnight trip to Santa Cruz as well as other meets in which everyone got a chance to compete against top notch archers. Besides some minor complications, like arrows going to Contra Costa County and bows that refused to let themselves by pulled back, everyone improved their scores while having a great time!!! Many thanks to our superb coach, Mr. Welsh, who hopes he won't get beat too badly next year...
